

On the Green

MAY 17, 1972
NO. 35

AMONG OURSELVES

Gilbert Delgado will attend the Canadian Association of the Deaf Workshop on Thursday, May 18 in Toronto, Canada....Congratulations to Reggie Jones on the birth of a nine pound, eleven ounce son, Reginald Jones, Jr....Augustine Gentile recently received an award from the Conference of Executives of American Schools for the Deaf for his outstanding service in working for the deaf....Harry Rhones was promoted to night supervisor in Building Operations on Monday....Joan Tracy was given an award for her devotion and hard work by the Gallaudet College Theatre at this year's Awards Night....Gladys Hornbeck will retire as supervisor of Cogswell Hall after 13 years of service to the College.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE

ADMINISTRATIVE SECRETARY: Demographic Studies
CLERK TYPIST: Department of Sociology
CUSTODIAN: Building Operations
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR: Physical Plant
STATISTICAL CLERK: Demographic Studies
RESEARCH ASSOCIATE: Demographic Studies

For further information, contact the Office of Non-Faculty Personnel.

STUDENTS HONORED FOR SCHOLASTIC ACHIEVEMENT

Twenty-three juniors and seniors were recently initiated into Phi Alpha Pi honor society. The society was established in 1958 to encourage the pursuit of high scholastic achievement. Membership is extended annually to seniors who have a cumulative grade point average of 88.0 or higher and to juniors who have a GPA of 90.0 or higher.

This year's recipients --- the largest group in the society's history--- were: Shirley Manning, Alan Nunn, David Price, Thomas Harrington, William Saunders, Nancy Kelly, Carol Christ, Connie McClurg, Charles Everett, Adele Shuart, Gregory Gates, Leo Balinski, Thomas Coughlin, William Sergeant, Lily Won, Darcy Gray, Linda Risser, Vicki Jo Shank, Laurette Kenne, Daniel Kenyon, Dianne Hodgins, Peter Virtue, and Kay Shun-ki Ho.

NEWS FROM THE LINGUISTICS RESEARCH LABORATORY

The Linguistics Research Laboratory now has two locations. The LRL staff will be using temporary quarters on the second floor of College Hall, room 2. Room 7 of the Counseling Center will still be used for videotaping and analysis. Call 5265 for the College Hall offices or 6178 for the Counseling Center quarters.

William Stokoe will address the Northern California Registry of Interpreters of the Deaf, Parents Association and other groups on May 20 at the California School for the Deaf, Berkeley. He will spend the preceding day in consultation with the Stanford University Program in Language for the Deaf, to which Kendall School is a subscriber.

Lyn Friedman and Robbin Battison will be joining the Linguistics Research Laboratory staff as research associates for the summer. Lyn has worked with Charles Fillmore and Wallace Chafe in Berkeley, and Robbin comes from Ursula Bellugi's Sign Language project at the Salk Institute.

AROUND AND ABOUT

The Department of Health, Education, and Welfare's Rehabilitation Services Administration reports that an estimated 15,400 deaf and hearing and speech impaired persons received their services in 1971....If you are interested in news about schools using total communication, you may want to subscribe to the monthly publication, The Deaf Spectrum. Mail $3.00 payable to The Deaf Spectrum, 5070 S.W. Menlo Drive, Beaverton, Oregon 97005.

TWO GALLAUDET STUDENTS NAMED TO WHO'S WHO

Michael R. Finneran and Thomas J. Coughlin were named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.

Announcement of the honors was made at the College's annual Awards Day Program. Inclusion in Who's Who is based on outstanding leadership, scholastic achievement, character, and service to the College.

XEROX DEMONSTRATION

The Xerox Corporation will have a mobile van on campus Tuesday, May 23, in the Auditorium parking lot from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m.

Mr. Morris M. Smith, Xerox sales representative, will be available to answer questions about the equipment on display at that time.

All staff are invited to see the demonstration at their convenience.

R.I.D. WORKSHOP/CONVENTION

The Southern California Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf will be hosting the Second R.I.D. Workshop/Convention from August 14-17 in Long Beach, California.

As part of the four day workshop, which will cover 13 topics of interest, the San Fernando Valley State College, Department of Special and Rehabilitation Education will be offering a course, "Survey of Interpreting," for undergraduate or graduate credit. Tuition is $10.00.

Rates at the Edgewater Hyatt House, scene of the workshop, are $37.50 for four nights, double occupancy. Banquets, tours, babysitting services, and hospitality service from the airport are also part of the program.

For more information contact:

Chairman

R.I.D. Workshop/Convention

8424 Conoga Avenue

Conoga Park, California 92324

GRADUATE STUDENTS HONORED

Three graduate students were honored on Monday at the annual Graduate School Awards Day.

Sharon Burlingame received the Helen Fay Award in recognition of her potential success as a teacher of the deaf. The Daniel T. Cloud Award went to Tom Humphries as outstanding deaf student and to Kathleen Foust as outstanding hearing student.

ON THE GREEN is published each week for the faculty and staff of Gallaudet College by the Office of Alumni and Public Relations. Campus news is always welcome. Phone 3326 or TTY 4232.

Judy Bortner, editor

Judy